BY N. O. SHAPHERD. (This is quite a pretty love-story in verse, and very gracefully told .- Ep. Panas ); The rain had fallen the whole day long
From hopeless clouds of an asten gray;
We had sung the tast of an old love-song,
Each waiting to hear what the other would say.

We had play d at effect for an hour or more, She had mated me thrice, with an easy grace; We had cards, and a game at battle-dore, [1]] we wake the echoes about the place.

I had traced her forume long her hand, She had plots ed mine in the self-name w Fork I painted with the hues of fairy-land, she drew mme dark as a polar day.

We had read the poets, both old and new, and porced over legunds of wild romance— How - handsoms knight a cragon slew While his strong right arm and his faithful lance We had tired of all, and had idly walked, Ber hand on my arm, up and down the room. Till also weary grew; when we sat and talked, h. he chartering hirds, in the gathering gloor

The new sarg a song, as I said before— An olden ballad of human love— A caste that steed on a rocky shore, A matten as fair as a milk white dove,

And a feer less lover who came to woo, Wi han eloquest torque and a soft guitar; How he weed to be faithful, tond and true, And awore by the Fates and the Evening Star-

Till the strain was over, and all was hushed, When she saised to my face her fall brown or es. And I faunded then that the rose-check thushed; in my ardent gase, like the sun-dyed skies,

It was all in vain Lessayed to speak.
The love that so close with my life was wed;
fait in my heart that words were weak;
And the stately post of her regal hand. Made me pause ere yet I had quite begin. Unfessed, bewildered, I scarce knew why, As an exple that files too near the am is dezzled, and staggers beneath the sky.

As she sat with her wine-red lips apart, And her white hand idle upon the keys, I'd have given worlds to have read her heart— I'd have gune thro fire, or have stemm d the ser

She apoks: "You shall be the lover se bold, 5.md I the lady he came to woo; I This seat I will choose for my castle sid— Xon must feel the part, as the actors do." Then she shaded with cork my beardless lip, Which longed to salute her fingers fair; She tied a sash on her delicate hip, And placed a diamond-pin in her hair.

And looked like princess of courtly main.

As I knott at her feet and touched the chords.
I range of my heart to my heart's heart-queen.
But the mulous off were the burning words.

So I flung the guitar I held aside.
And poured out my love like golden wine;
Her head dreeped down or my breast to hide
The blush on her cheek as her band sought

Thus we set till the daylight went to reet, And the evening shadows begge to fall.

Ann a subleam broke through the purpling West in an amber glory up in the wall.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

Financial Affairs.

The complexion of affairs in Third-street alters very little from day to day; the demands for Money, generally, not being pressing, and the stock of Currency undergoing hardly any perceptible change.

At some of the Discount-houses, yesterday, the offerings of Paper and the Checkings were heavy, and Money was very close; but at others the inquiry was light. Rates of interest in the street were, as before, 2@214 per cent. a month, and occasionally higher; with few operations at that figure, arising, however, more from the paucity of lenders than borrowers, who gladly pay that exorbitant price when they want accommoda-

Boston and New York Exchange was the same as on Wednesday. The market was not active, nor steady either, though some dealers called it so, at M buying and 1% premium selling, on New York, no one giving I except to particular customers. Checks on Baltimore and Philadelphia were still Gold remained firm at 134, and New Orleans scarce and in fair request at %@1 premium. In Time-bills there were no transactions of consequence, few houses buying them at any rate.

Some uneasiness is still felt in regard to the issues of the Commercial Bank of Kenculation, the Bankers receiving and paying it out very liberally. The latest advices from the Bank are said to be favorable, and we are informed that some of the notes have been taken up recently by the Bank, and that more will be about the 1st prox. The Bank certainly owes it to itself to redeem a part of the heavy circulation at present in this market, which has a tendency, very naturally, to discredit the institution

The notes of the Wheeling (Va.) Banks and Bankers were higher yesterday, hardly any one buying them better than 8 discount, and some being desirous to put them up to 10. Tennessee was also worse, and the old Banks were usually purchased at 10 discount. Other Uncurrent Money was unaltered. The rates of Exchange and Coin were:

Flour underwent no particular change with a limited demand. Whisky was steady, with sales of 1,200 barrels. Wheat, Corn and Barley were firm; Oats were dull and Rye advanced. Coffee and Molasses were firm, and Sugar was in improved demand. Mess Pork was in moderate demand at $14 and $14 50 per barrel, at which prices 350 barrels were sold. Lard was more freely offered, and Rulk and Green Meats were dull. In Hogs there were more transactions yesterday than for several days previous, the close. Over 2,000 Hogs were disposed of at $5 to $5 35.

The following are the Imports and Exports during the twenty-four hours ending

Yesterday's Louisville papers, under date of Wednesday evening, say: The packing season is fast drawing to a close, and a number of the houses have already closed, while others are expecting to finish in less than a week. The number killed up to this evening is 179,942 heed, with not more than 20,000 head yet to arrive, which will make the killing around the Falls this season full a little short of 200,000 head; which will be a falling aff, as compared with last year, of 53,000 head, and the consequence is that less Pork and Bacon will be packed.

The number of Hogs slaughtered at St. The packing season is fast drawing to

The number of Hogs slaughtered at St. Louis so far is a little over 25,000 head. The number of Hogs alaughtered at St.

The Secretary of the Treasury has advertised for proposals until the 28th far the issue of $5,000,000 in Treasury-notes, sursmant to the act just passed. The bids aust state the lowest rate of interest per augumn at which the bills will be taken.

New York Stock Market.

The Export movement of Domestic Produce from New York for the past week was largely increased by the recent improvement in Exchange there; the total value being over $3,500,000, as follows:

For the week...... $1,10,715 $2,112.851 $3,402.402 Prev. reported..... $6,417,221 $60,564,673 $4,730,210 Since January 1... $59,557,934 $65,677,536 $98,297,671 Our Wednesday's New York exchanges

thus refer to Tuesday's Stock Market: thus refer to Tuesday's Stock Market:

The firmness in the Stock Market noticed is the afternoon dealings of yesterday, was renewed at or before the opening of the carly session of the Board of Brokers this morning. The various political dispatches in the morning papers from the seat of Government and from South Carolina, although reflecting no settled opinion as to the ultimate result of our present troubles, failed to neutralize the good influences of the English news by the steamer of the 7th December. news by the steamer of the 7th December, made public on Monday afternoon. The relief to the Export trade, to the Foreign Exchanges and to Financial confidence generally, by this and the preceding arrival, is unquestioned, and business outside the Stock Exchange goes forward with more steadiness in consequence. The orders to buy State and other Stocks came into the First Board with some freedom, and the advance paid over average sales of yesterday was cqual to 1@2 per cent.

New York Central before the Board New York Central before the Board brought 75 per cent, cash; Illinois Central at the Board 65 per cent, and New York and Eric 2034 per cent. All these were favorably moved by the English advices, but the advance brought forward sellers of the cash Stock, and soon after the adjournment, indeed, on the second call of the list, it was not consider the cash of the cash. quite manifest that the speculators for the reaction were encouraged by the fresh supply of certificates, and prices fell back in the afternoon to 73 for Central, 62½ for Illinois and 28½ for New York and Eric. The other and 28½ for New York and Erie. The other Railway Shares moved in proportion to these leading speculatives, up in the morning and down again at the afternoon Board. The State Stocks also rose in the morning to 74 for Tennessee and 68 for Missouri, and fell back 1 per cent. at the close. Panama Shares were 2 per cent. higher than yesterday and in demand, and Pacific Mail brought State cent. huver thirty days. 80 per cent., buyer thirty days.

Respecting Tuesday's Monetary matters in New York, Wednesday's Times observes: Money and Exchange affairs continue to show a gradual improvement, not so decidedly in rates as in the case with which negotiations are accomplished. There is more sale for first-class mercantile Paper, ontside of Bank, at 12@15 per cent., and a continued and even cheerful disposition, at most of the large Banks, to accommodate their regular dealers. The screw-stemmer Etma, from Liverpool, December 4, delivered to Messra. Browns to-day, £50,000, or about $250,000, in Gold, and £16,000 to other parties, and about £400,000 additional, or nearly $2,000,000, is looked for by the Atlantic, of the 5th of December, and Persia, of the 8th of December.

These receipts are timely to the aid of the freedom of the Exchange movement, but the effect, thus far, on the value of Bills, is not very decided. The truth undoubtedly is, that the Import trade owe but moderate balances abroad, compared with the amount of bills created here and at the South on Grain and Cotton; so that the shippers of Gold from the other side will be able to realize, perhaps unexpectedly to some of them, very profitable returns.

The standard Bankers' rates on London The standard Bankers rates on London, for the Asia, are 1031/20104 per cent.; transient Bank and choice Merchant Bills 1021/2 (20103, and Merchant Bills, with shipping documents attached, 100/20101 per cent. The rates on Paris remain 5f. 50c.

Last week's Boston Bank-statement shows these aggregates: Capital Stock, $38,231,700; Loans and Discounts, $61,426,500; Specie, $3,941,500; Due from other Banks, $7,283,000; Due to other Banks, $7,032,600; Deposits, $17,296,-000; Circulation, $6,619,000.
